To you, Mr. Redfearn, we dedicate the 1959-60 edition of HO-HI ECHOES. We hope this will help to show our great appreciation for the splendid things you have done for us and for our school.

May Hooker High continue to grow and improve through your administration.

Not only as an administrator but as a teacher of science, of typing and of driver's training shall we remember you.

Superintendent's Message

As you LEAP through your HO-HI ECHOES and recall your school days, let us hope that your school experiences are enabling you to meet the challenges of an ever changing society. It calls for the best in you to meet these challenges. Therefore, continue your preparation, ever seeking more knowledge and wisdom so that you, too, may enjoy the blessings of a continuing full, rich and satisfying life.

A large, handwritten signature in cursive script that appears to read "Gerald D. James, S.D.H." followed by a date "1968".

Gerald D. James

SEATED: Mr. Jim Sugg, Mr. Jasper Jones, Secretary; Mr. Bruce Sugg,

Chairman; Mrs. Ava G. Albritton.

STANDING: Mr. Charlie Albritton, Mr. W. D. Redfern, Principal.

Our Local School Committee and the County School Board are not seen by our students in everyday life, yet the school could not function without them. They give many hours of their time freely to enable our community to have a better, more efficient school system.

Realizing that your job is endless, and sometimes unnoticed, we, the class of '60, wish to express our sincerest thanks to each member of the Board of Education of Greene County.

MRS. SARA M. STOCKS
Local member of the County Board of Education.

As you the seniors plan to leave, take the final step through the open doorway of knowledge. You have had many years over the last four to learn and complete the basic requirements of your education. Now it is time to move on to the next level of learning. Your parents, teachers, and friends, remember, hold the door open for you. Four years here at Hookerton High have opened the door and introduced you to the wonderful world of truth and knowledge. Never let your quarter or education stop here, but seek always for higher goals of learning.

Now it is almost time for final exams, baccalaureate graduation and the closing of the door on your life as students here. But no matter how many doors may open and close, you will always have the key of memory with which to unlock this door and retain forever the inspiring and constructive years of life at Hookerton High School.

BUS DRIVERS: A. C. Ommond, James Letchworth, Bill Stocks, Gerald Carraway, Clayton Sugg.

MRS. CARRAWAY

Do "these" sound familiar?

"Where's Mr. Redfearn?"
"Can I use the phone?"
"Gotta aspin?"
"Can you run off twenty copies before the bell rings?"
"I over slept."
"Can I pay for lunch now?"

Ho-Hi Hi-Lites Staff

Editor: LINDA JOHNSON
Managing Editor: EVELYN ALBRITTON

Almost . . . !

Everybody has been working as hard as they can to get this month's edition of the Ho-Hi Hi-Lites out on time. They have finally gotten all of the news together and have it typed on the stencils. It is now being run off.

In a few minutes all of the paper staff will begin its rat race around the typing table to assemble this edition of the paper and Mr. Redfearn will be sitting there with his hand so tired it won't know whether it can staple one more copy or not.

The Seniors discovered that the first issue of the Ho-Hi Hi-Lites was difficult to release,

But out among the sunlight and trees the staff begins to look forward to larger and better issues of the paper.
